

Wakefield Face Matmen From Annapolis

With all chances of a return match with Washington-Lee High School virtually out the window as a result of rescheduling difficulties, Wakefield has made quick arrangements for Southern of Annapolis, Maryland to come to town for a 3:30 p.m. encounter today.

Coach Vic Blue of Wakefield is using his boys optionally this afternoon and hopes to build up an advantage that will allow him to insert some of his lads who have never seen varsity competition into the fracas.

Blue will open the show with either Howard Sutton or Dave Evans, in the 103-pound class.

Doug Miller or Allen Coe will do the chores in the 112 pound group while either Ronnie Heiniman or Rod Wenger will follow in the 120 contest.

It will be Joe Crunkilton or Bill Lady in the 127 tangle but Chuck Warner is definitely chosen for the 133 pound assignment and Tony Rudgers is sure of the 138 pound job.

Jimmy Edwards or Sonny James will start in the 145 pound division while Joe Patalive or Burt Mucho will do the honors in the 154 class while Steve Hall has been selected for the 165 pound task.

In the 175 pound group it will be either Porky Pennell or Jim McIntosh. Pennell has been wrestling as a heavyweight but the trim youngster prefers the lower class now that the Warriors have a bigger boy in Val Houghton for the unlimited weight group. Val starts tomorrow.

NOTES: Despite the fact that Blue is disappointed about not getting another crack at the Generals this year, Vic is happy about scheduling Southern High on such short notice. It all happened over the telephone yesterday and the Annapolis boys not only agreed to tussle on one day's notice but also agreed to make the long trip instead of demanding that the Warriors do the travelling.
